July 30-August 1, McCormick Place South, Chicago, IL

Summary of the Meeting

The Organizing Committee, in conjunction with the IFT meeting, is pleased to bring another exciting program to your attention, and cordially invites your participation. The focus for this year's symposium is "Wellness Foods". The symposium is aimed at providing an understanding of the link between diet and health and how foods from the Indian sub-continent can help reduce the incidence of disease. Biochemical strategies for value addition, diet design for a healthy lifestyle, the effect of globalization on the Indian diet and what lies ahead will be elaborated and discussed. Hope you would join us for this set of great talks and discussions as well as during the business meeting and at the banquet as follows.
